Example Candidate Responses

Cambridge International AS and A Level English Language

9093

Paper 2

Cambridge Advanced

In order to help us develop the highest quality Curriculum Support resources, we are undertaking a continuous programme of review; not only to measure the success of our resources but also to highlight areas for improvement and to identify new development needs.

We invite you to complete our survey by visiting the website below. Your comments on the quality and relevance of Cambridge Curriculum Support resources are very important to us.

https://surveymonkey.co.uk/r/GL6ZNJB

Do you want to become a Cambridge consultant and help us develop support materials?

Please follow the link below to register your interest.

http://cie.org.uk/cambridge-for/teachers/teacherconsultants/

Cambridge International Examinations retains the copyright on all its publications. Registered Centres are permitted to copy material from this booklet for their own internal use. However, we cannot give permission to Centres to photocopy any material that is acknowledged to a third party even for internal use within a Centre.

Contents

Introduction	4
Assessment at a glance	6
Section A – Question 1	8
Section A – Question 2	12
Section A – Question 3	18
Section B – Question 4	21
Section B – Question 5	25
Section B – Question 6

Introduction

The main aim of this booklet is to exemplify standards for those teaching Cambridge International AS and A Level English (9093), and to show how different levels of candidates' performance (high, middle and low) relate to the subject's curriculum and assessment objectives.

In this booklet candidate responses have been chosen to exemplify a range of answers. Each response is accompanied by a brief commentary explaining the strengths and weaknesses of the answers.

Each response is annotated with clear explanation of where and why marks were awarded or omitted. This, in turn, followed by examiner comments on how the answer could have been improved. In this way it is possible for you to understand what candidates have done to gain their marks and what they will have to do to improve their answers. At the end there is a list of common mistakes candidates made in their answers for each question.

This document provides illustrative examples of candidate work. These help teachers to assess the standard required to achieve marks, beyond the guidance of the mark scheme. Some question types where the answer is clear from the mark scheme, such as short answers and multiple choice, have therefore been omitted.

The questions, mark schemes and pre-release material used here are available to download from Teacher Support. These files are:

Question Paper 12	, November 2016
Question paper	9093_w16_qp_12.pdf
Mark scheme	9093_w16_ms_12.pdf
Question Paper 22	, November 2016
Question paper	9093_w16_qp_22.pdf
Mark scheme	9093_w16_ms_22.pdf
Question Paper 32, November 2016
Question paper	9093_w16_qp_32.pdf
Mark scheme	9093_w16_ms_32.pdf
Question Paper 42	, November 2016
Question paper	9093_w16_qp_42.pdf
Mark scheme	9093_w16_ms_42.pdf

Past papers, Examiner Reports and other teacher support materials are available on Teacher Support at https://teachers.cie.org.uk

How to use this booklet

Example candidate response – high	Examiner comments
M& Gillard's speech is characterised by strong, emotive binguage and and accusatory, outraged bre. "It is written in an thought-provoking manner, and exposes the flaws. of the Leader of the opposition 1 Answers by real candidates in exam conditions. These show you the types of answers for each level. Discuss and analyse the answers with your learners in the classroom to improve their skills. She refers to flabott repeatedly as "this man". Such a phrase resonates as slight bathing, contempt and disgusts. By choosing not to give him a name a title here, she reduces his influence and important	 Immediate and purposeful assessment of the tone of the passage. Examiner comments are alongside the answers, linked to specific part of the answer. These explain where and why marks were awarded. This helps you to interpret the standard of Cambridge exams and helps your learners to refine exam technique.

How the candidate could have improved the answer

There was some engagement with the passage focus was very variable and rhetorical devices

The response would have benefited from a mo disconnected and this prevented any clear exa

This explains how the candidate could have improved the answer. This helps you to interpret the standard of Cambridge exams and helps your learners to refine exam technique.

Common mistakes candidates made in this question

The examiner expected candidates to:

- identify language examples and features the passage
- comment on specific effects of the chose effect of the passage as a whole

Lists the common mistakes candidates made in answering each question. This will help your learners to avoid these mistakes at the exam and give them the best chance of achieving a high mark.

Assessment at a glance

For Cambridge International AS and A Level English Language, candidates:

• take Papers 1 and 2 (for the Cambridge International AS qualification)

or

 follow a staged assessment route by taking Papers 1 and 2 (for the Cambridge International AS qualification) in one series, then Papers 3 and 4 (for the Cambridge International A Level qualification) in a later series

or

• take Papers 1, 2, 3 and 4 in the same examination series, leading to the full Cambridge International A Level.

Cambridge International AS Level candidates take:

Paper 1 Passages	Duration	Weighting
The paper contains three questions.	2 hours 15 minutes	50%
Candidates answer two questions: Question 1, and either Question 2 or Question 3.
Questions carry equal marks.
Externally assessed. 50 marks

and

Paper 2 Writing	Duration	Weighting
Two sections: Sections A and Section B.	2 hours	50%
Candidates answer two questions: one from Section A and one from Section B.
Questions carry equal marks.
Externally assessed. 50 marks

Cambridge International A Level candidates take:

Paper 1 Passages	Duration	Weighting
The paper contains three questions.	2 hours 15 minutes	25%
Candidates answer two questions: Question 1, and either Question 2 or Question 3.
Questions carry equal marks.
Externally assessed. 50 marks

and

Paper 2 Writing	Duration	Weighting
Two sections: Section A and Section B.	2 hours	25%
Candidates answer two questions: one from Section A and one from Section B.
Questions carry equal marks.
Externally assessed. 50 marks

and

Paper 3 Text Analysis	Duration	Weighting
The paper contains two questions.	2 hours 15 minutes	25%
Candidates must answer both questions.
Questions carry equal marks.
Externally assessed. 50 marks

and

Paper 4 Language Topics	Duration	Weighting
The paper contains three questions, each on a separate topic area.	2 hours 15 minutes	25%
Candidates answer two questions.
Questions carry equal marks.
Externally assessed. 50 marks

Teachers are reminded that the latest syllabus is available on our public website at www.cie.org.uk and Teacher Support at https://teachers.cie.org.uk

Section A – Question 1

Example candidate response – high	Examiner comments
Plan: Missing Sonse of Suspense and nigstery Opening Missing - taken, abdurted, run away, lost Characters - narrotor, mother, friend, father Setting - Zinbabwe, Harare Plat Two best friends one in England, one in Zin Drifting apart Lade of workact becomes worrying Search for ensuers Plat twist.
Gather ye rosebuds while ye may Some new live lives of oniet desperation. I have sears on my hands from touching arlain people. The course of true live never distring arlain people. The course of true live never distring arlain people. I am not what [am] an not what [am. It's almost sardonically	1 An eye-catching introduction
Junny that I begin my day quoting Shakespeare. And not even something romantic and enchanting like homes and Juliet, but I start with the maudlin Othello. This specific instance is just another precursor for the direction my life is going.	using an allusion to Othello. Stimulates interest and informs the examiner that this is a candidate who is well read and is able to use language devices.
As I blody the out of bed and the vestiges of sleep concede to the rather malerolent? thoughts I find myself possessing, I can't help but think again. I really an not what I can for the functioning person I am going to appear as for the rest of the day is nothing but a slender replica of bravado.	2 'sardonically', 'precursor', 'malevolent' are instances of ambitious vocabulary used in an apt manner by the candidate.

Example candidate response – high, continued

A	completely	different	person from	the	mind	it	contains.	3
	/·				and the state of t				÷ .

Now this exercite tral crisis Pre-envient AND. -6 that much the result lind myself in is not 50 one pirotal catastrophic overt but more of coalescion d cumulative episodes of misfortune. And like situation where there. a the proverbial every js. "dice ellect there was tipping point α the A depritue avalarcho of metarchay The departure of my best friend.

Oh no, it's almost seven a.m. and I'm still not ready for the day. It's almost surprising - my mother hosn't raised all hell for my tardirets: Maybe the intersity I of my mood hos finally reached a tangibility of that it has repelled her from my : room - The situation is not too dive yet, I can still make jokes!

the issue at honde. My best friend heft Back to for the United Kingdom earlier this year on an ic scholaship Her observe has been bittermeet. 7 Bitter, because of the way it sometimes feels like I've lost a link Like In in a situation where her assistance companionship is warranted but as soon as seek for it I realise it's not three. However, it has been because it has allowed me to realise some truths. pupet Kealistically and 1 a perfect compatibility her are Whilst I tend to be alog and infocused at times her temperment temperment grounds me erudite and even in the pust. 9 leaned liesvily on that 1 realised Sher She did too, but to a lesser extent. I held our foundship in such queat esteen (was positive Survive the distance and beat the odds. was

Examiner comments

 This first section manages to develop a singular idea of a persona who is troubled. The reason for the melancholy is not explained, giving rise to mystery. Withholding information raises suspense and stimulates the reader's interest.

Spelling error here – and there are a few scattered throughout the piece – but it's through ambitious vocabulary and therefore some leeway is given.

5 The variety of sentence types so far, together with range of long and short sentences, adds interest and pace to the story.

6 The humour used in the language – using some overly formal words for a domestic situation and acknowledging it – is masterly.

The idea of a 'missing' person is guessed at here by the examiner – who might have missed the silence of the mother in the paragraph above.

8 Error – it should be 'she and I'.

9 Persona still muses on her 'lost' friend, but we find out later this is a bit of a false clue meant to trick the reader.

Example candidate response – high, continued	Examiner comments
It has been almost two weeks now since our last phone conversation which was as hollow and detached as the nexted space I find myself in now. I This was just a confirmation of what I had feared. The most influential and important person in my life was blowly being taken away from hike the person she was had disoppeared. Typical of human nature, I became self-indulgent in my pity porty and begin	 Complex idea – language use is sophisticated enough to accommodate this. from (me).' Missing word.
to reflect back on our relationship. I saw how I'd taken the role of the reliable handkershief Always there IP when needed to relieve on then hastily thrown away when not. This brought to nind that one quote from J.D. Salinger, "I have scars on my hands from touching	Use of metaphor to depict relationship.
certain people." Yet she was left completely unharmed in comparison to the enotional injury that cane from my "bleeding heart"	lnteresting build-up of characterisation.
As I quickly finish preparing for the day my father makes the off-handed connect that he hodn't heard from my best-friends's dad in a while. Most unusual brice they practically work together. On Really, I think spitchally, who knew calousness was besed hereditary. I distractedly peep into the kitchen to see where my mother is but it's quite empty She must have left for m her sister's place que this early this morning. With that thought I purry off to school.	Another mention of the mother missing though the persona is too busy caring about her own problems to actually pursue this thought.
In Grafish dars later that day we're discussing the merits of none other than Shakespeare but in this case his play "A Midsummer Night's Dream" Specifically the discussion is centered around the phrase "the course of love never did run smooth." My peelings are the quote is quite universal in its meaning of love. Say, the love you have for a friend maybe? As eve strange coincidence occurs just as I'm musing to myself on that. Another friend of mine asks me if I'd heard from my best friend recently. Of cause I say Thoven't, almost self - deprocatingly.

Example candidate response – high, continued

She says she was curious because the had passed by her old house and mp best friends pavents cars were absent and there was a "For Sale" sign Strange. Her ignoring me I could begrundgingly undestand but fixtly my father mertioning her father's sudder disappearance, then now this information. As the proverbial saying goes once is a fluke, twice it is a coincidence and the third time it's a pattern that to inestigate 15
-[

Quite arti- diractically a single I call to the real-estate purents agency gave the information that my best friend's relocating to England but had not made any were simply anourcevents dit. I would have asked my nother 16 formal about it but unusually her plione was uneachable. 1'd order of hope that my best friend would latched on to the but something dramatic had happened to hist forget ne for this behaviour. The august Again, loves wrong Lepuchral mood returned and 1 morosely trudged back home arrived to find ۵. was circus. ŪΖ/

Police cars and curiais reighbours reighbours filled the streets like a procession of chaos. My futher quickly ran out and asked if I'd heard from my mother today. I told him that I thought she left early in the morning end he informs me she hear't ever returned last night. He assured she had decided to go to her sister's that night. As I worily becamed the calophonic piture of disaster unfolding before that I realised filled with trepadation. She was gone 19

Examiner comments

15 Mystery sustained in the idea of the absent friend and her missing family.

16 Third reference to the mother – the 'real' missing.

W Ambitious vocabulary still used with care.

Good use of paragraphing – a new paragraph is used as there is a change of venue (the persona has arrived home). Good continuity between paragraphs is seen in the cohesive vocabulary choices – idea of 'circus' at the end of one paragraph coheres with the 'chaos' in the opening of the next paragraph.

The mother is the missing person. We only find this out at the end. However, the sense of mystery is sustained till the end by the subplot of the absent friend. There is also suspense created.

Dengaging and imaginative. Strong sense of purpose and focus on the parameters of the task. Ideas are complex, language used creates a real sense of character, mystery and suspense.

Total mark awarded = 23 out of 25

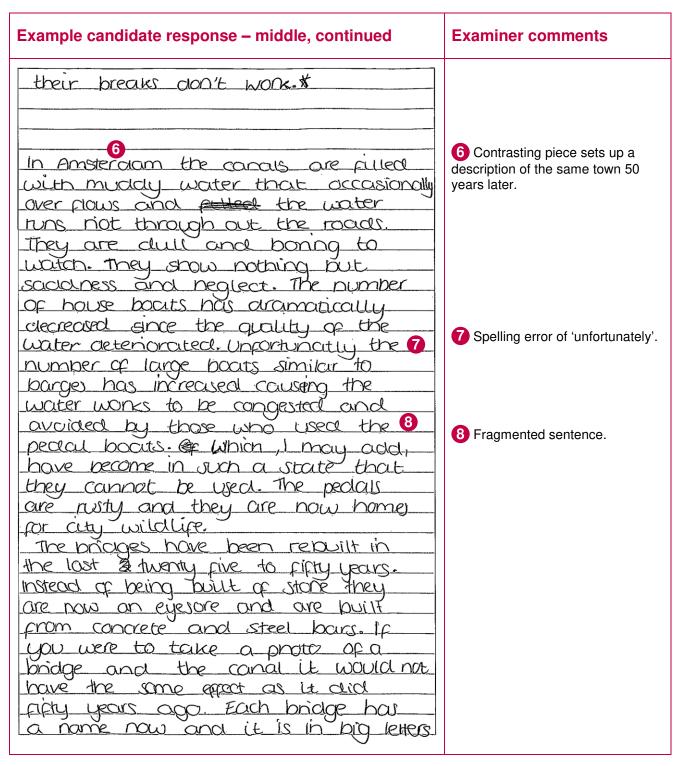

How the candidate could have improved the answer

There were a few spelling and expression errors. These could have been avoided by a final check at the end. The errors, mostly of spelling, were due to the ambitious vocabulary used. Although the composition did not get full marks as there were quite a few errors, it was still a very good piece of work which achieved an A grade.

Section A – Question 2

Example candidate response – middle	Examiner comments
Plan Plan Plan Plan Canals Canals full of big boats Roidges Anne Frank House Small independent Small independent Shaps Shops Sikes - hot bikes Bikes anymore. Pn Amsterdam the canals run through the whole place. every where you turn you are not quite sure if you've been there before. The canals are scathing to look at and somewhat. relaxing on the canals, backs rest. Every back you can imagine, from house backs to peak backs. Along the walls of the canals, house boats are connected to the sewage system. You come across some very pash house boats and thely you see some that an only be described as 'hippy' Shill pontosic to look at. Along with any the canals comes? bridges. All ponteter thousand of them. To add to this they all look very alike. You can easily mistoke one bridge for another and you will end up going in a completely different direction, but it's ou part of the pun of the pique. A talking point of this becutiful city is the Anne Frank House. The long queue	Immediate task focus on the description of a city/town, as the task is to contrast a town 50 years later in the second piece.

Example candidate response – middle, continued	Examiner comments
is worth standing in so you can walk around the historical house. It stands tall looking out onto the canal and a little now of shops. It is sandwiched between two even taller houses. Not to give two much away, it's on extra ord- in'any experience that shoulon't be missed like ye opening to what was really happening ond makes you peel grat- eful that you don't have to live. Like that. Amsterdom is full to the form with small independent, shops, every side road is saturated with every side. road is saturated with every side. induction of the born with small independent shops, every side. road is saturated with every side. road is saturated on a ress serve of the lock and foll style jewelleng of them and the low quality. It these Bikes have get become so popular that tules have been made. You cannet lock your bike in certain place or it will be taken away. If you want it back you have to pay, However most of the bikes aren't worth keeping. If you do fancy a stroll along the canal keep to the parements as these cyclists don't hold back. They pedal fast, they travel fast. Perhaps because	 3 Some ambitious vocabulary is used to give variation to the expression. 4 Fragmented sentence. 5 Spelling errors of 'souvenir' and 'guaranteed'.

_

Example candidate response – middle, continued	Examiner comments
next to it so theres no chance of having that excited, signtly terripid reeling of being list and on an adventure. The entre fantain anne Frank House is now surrounded by nothing but gramy canals and modernised bettering buildings and houses. It stands out uke a sore thumb. Although its an important parts of Amsterdams history it doen't look a part anymal it looks like sameone has taken it from samewhere else and squeeshea it on a gap. I mail independent shops. What small indep- endant shops? Every road is filled with big branded shops. To make things wase there is more than one of each shop. There are six the shop windows, every thing is the same. Every t-mirt, jumper and dress indiced the same, thereas the same ball in the same, thereas the same core and the mainstream things have taken control. If you're looking for a bike or two, don't bather with emstralam. They	 • squeeshed' is non-standard English; 'squeezed' would have been a better choice. • A rhetorical question to add a language effect – that of a character who sounds disappointed with the new Amsterdam. • The candidate should have used 'is' instead of 'are'.
have all gone. A Not a handle bar to be seen, not a chain or bell. Now, evenyone takes to their hover boards. As state of the art as they	Priplet used for descriptive and rhetorical effect to pass judgement.

Example candidate response – middle, continued	Examiner comments
are, they are just not a bike. There's nothing comical about the bad is quality or walking past and there's nothing left but a wassingle wheel user single wheel user have really taken Amsterdam by storm and even one bas one. They	Unclear what 'bad quality' refers to. Thought has not been properly formulated.
also have very big cars, very une- ssecaning instead of having bike parks there's a constant clemand for multistorey car the parks. Will this & interesting the lifestyle change streng continue to grow? I hope not. The people of Amsterdam are unwelcoming and somewhat grum- py. every citizen stoms around like they have somewhere very important tobe. Even if they are just going to the hearest supermarket to lovy some jom. There's almost no people having a catchup in a café with a nice sandwich, probably because they spent half an hour on skype and that was satisfactory. They don't have a buzz about them- It's as if they have lost their	Of Spelling error.
sting. The people of Amsterdam are always smilling. Evenyone you walk paut is in a deep conversation with comercine	Part of the first piece: the candidate has managed to add another detail to structure the contrasts between the two pieces. This seems like an afterthought; hence a brief plan would have been a good idea.
ebe. They cycle around talking, laught- ng and having a really enjayable time. When you walk past capés they are every table is occupied by priency or pamilies talking and sharing stories and tales. Their happines and excitable sense of life radiate the entire city.	 The word 'throughout' is missing. Imaginative touches, some appropriate sense of audience. Total mark awarded = 11 out of 25

A number of errors were made. The candidate could have checked for subject-verb disagreement mistakes, fragmented sentences, missing words and spelling errors.

The description could have incorporated more specific details of people and activities to add to the atmosphere.

The language used was a little unvaried: the candidate could have used more ambitious vocabulary, different ways of starting sentences and using varying sentence lengths and types. There were a few attempts at language effects, though not always successful because of the lack of variation of devices. This sits at the bottom end of a C grade.

Section A – Question 3

Section: A Tragenetice Weiting. The view from the window. I worke up every morning to see the sum sizing from its bod. St. is one of the best comes that I get its bod. St. is one of its best comes that I get its bod. St. is one of its best comes that I get its bod. St. is one of its best comes that I get its bod. St. is one of its best comes that I get its day the boat field backets. Ord I then its day the boat field backets. I wond its day the boat field backets. I sum its come may field ball of orange took at the severing itself fields and planned. When the sum itserse main char deep ablue mountains, the magic drame close should the severing itself fields get its shiry, franketting the orange them boiled the sum itserse main faile on its pet face with a boaring smile on itse pet face the magical dust which is been sprayed on the magical dust which is been sprayed on the face and face is on y woll the face we apped itse a magical dust which is been sprayed on the face and face with the second we dust of the windows, I show allow face the second windows, I show allow f

Example candidate response – low, continued	Examiner comments
along with them around the field. at ones. I knew	13 Unclear, undeveloped detail.
them all but I shaven't spoken with them. In one of those ling hut, these were two	4 Missing word, 'fur'.
dogs. One with olive black 12 and the other with husky brown. They also ienjoy the sun light like I do but, they had their own way of enjoying it Each day, they sum behind, chasing	A general idea lacking specific concrete details which would have engaged the reader.
eath other and jumping with jay. Whenever	6 Another basic spelling error – and happyness, 16 By this time, I can hear the	'happynes'. 'Soul' is also misspelt as 'sole'.
chisping sound of the birds. I lean down to dook at the birds not on the mango tree in the garden. The mother bird was feeding to thes chicks. I could see their ges dask cole black	'can' and 'could' – confusion of tenses.
eyes glean with esecutment. 18 The mountains are now widely awake	More errors of spelling – 'excitement' – this one is a common error.
and wild. The rich emarald gereen surface of the mountains were densely populated with	(19) widely awake and wild' – a wild bushes and trees. I always woondered what was under those mesterious thick bushes?	bold claim that is not developed much in terms of supporting ideas.
and it is one of my unanswerred question 21 about nature.	20 Spelling errors are now frequent.
All of these gaine me hope and	(1) 'one of my unanswered
miss this moment in my day. No, not at any cost. I get out of my bed and shift myself ito my wheel chairy. As I move	question' is ungrammatical; the plural form 'questions' is needed here.
accross 20 my room, I two back for the tast	22 More spelling errors.
time to wards my window and give a big coulle chearty smile.	23 A short composition lacking in
-	development. There is focus on relevant content and the form is mostly descriptive, which is appropriate.
	Total mark awarded = 6 out of 25

The candidate could have developed more specific details in this short answer. There is some focus on 'colour and light' as demanded by the question but there is more 'telling' than 'showing' in this composition. Imagery could have been developed further to enable the reader to better imagine the scene.

Spelling and tense errors were made throughout the composition. The candidate could have spent a few minutes checking the work at the end to correct these errors.

Common mistakes candidates made in this question

The examiner expected candidates to write either a narrative or a descriptive piece of work in Section A, depending on the command words in the question. For example, 'Write the opening to a story' in Question 1 was asking for a narrative piece, as understood by the word 'story', whereas 'Write a descriptive piece called The View from the Window' in Question 3 was asking for a piece of descriptive writing, as it clearly stated.

Other important words were the 'focus' areas that each question contained. For example Question 1 asked the candidate to create a sense of 'suspense and mystery'; whereas Question 3 wanted the description to focus on 'colours and light'. For Question 2, the command words were, 'Write two contrasting pieces'. The question was asking for a description of 'a town in the present day', and 'the same town in fifty years' time'. The focus words were to 'create a sense of place and atmosphere.' The words 'place and atmosphere' clearly referred to a description of a setting, though elements of dialogue could be incorporated to evoke that atmosphere.

Candidates sometimes did not focus on the instructions within each question, for example, 'suspense and drama' for Question 1 and 'a sense of place and atmosphere' for Question 2. Time-management skills were lacking at times: overlong narratives in Section A often led to short, under-developed answers for Section B.

Some candidates did not spend a few minutes writing out a short plan to ensure the sound and effective structure of an answer. A lack of a plan often leads to diffuse, rambling work.

There was frequent evidence of candidates referring to 'amounts' rather than 'numbers' of people, and the confusion of 'less' and 'fewer' occurred even in some of the more competent submissions.

Some candidates struggled with syntax: they either created comma splices or ended sentences without main verbs. Incorrect apostrophe use was evident in some cases, but a more common error was the absence of punctuation.

Some candidates neglected capitals at the beginning of sentences completely.

Dangling modifiers were an issue: candidates should be taught the risks of beginning a sentence with 'By __ing' formations, especially if participles are not related to the subject noun of a sentence. Some vocabulary was incorrectly used.

Other common errors were:

- spelling errors
- tense inconsistencies
- lack of subject-verb agreement
- unvaried vocabulary
- unvaried syntax.

Section B – Question 4

Example candidate response – high Examiner comments Travelling for the first time 1 Lively tone established from the Hooray You made ve frually outset, appropriate for young and blar audience. Direct address is used, to managed parente indicating a sense of audience and responsible , enough 40 travel involving them straightaway. your own. haven 't you 90+ yet don't Hopefully Lose toope article will life-sand Melp you thos getting a tor tips and save 400 frous lectures Your paren 204 2 Subtitles add to the structure of Spendices_ 10 Sarry this composition as well as a sense Travelling ou your own of purpose. 05 and A-dealirs money say carr'+ perents NON who every fui ug noart desires. Even your a hurudre though How May you shouldn't spend all YOUR everytuing you 1. money oue -80-3 The use of imperatives like. Prioritize 3 tue recessities saw au continues to directly address the will saure you a whole womes lot audience. It also lends a tone of later. -that means viarce SUR 400 authority to the piece, and has the correct function of advising the food for and transport moul reader. always Jesse good lefto ver cale emergency. Stranger Danger 4 Z. 4 Rhyme helps to make the article appealing to the audience, Yes you've fold tuis you were Socor sivice particularly young people. Piece, of advice could never little Jout DECCO Keep to ordve more now +LIQUAuse ful lenow and don't accept people you

Example candidate response - high, continued Examiner comments 5 Rither 5 Specific hypothetical situations tuings from youre strangers, when partino that the teenage reader would away fue wgut with friends encounter. 514ing Joy tu da yous stop. aloun This can difficult prove a time (illes ton t and a told young ODe and you ave social your instructive ner fellow noure Siguals_ and if 0 person wording don 14 kuow askes 400 -40 90 Somewhere Picture with dou't afraid ince Meghan trainor un 6 Allusion to pop culture appeals Video 105 courage.) music (6) to a teenage reader. This tells the examiner that the candidate is aware of the audience and 3. East what you want. understands form. Continued appeal to audience let's face it, we're all going want with use of idiomatic English gives Joinge eat on OUS fanourite kinds 40 rise to tone of confidentiality. Kord foreign Q when Land λV CK. Howe You! with Supervision parent You you'll may eliene but after achally tived two a and voluntarily Voache Jores α to nealth food vice _casp Dou apple. `-(Loeliene fine, sus Sut HOUR bod just yourself Lookafter and that parents prove 40 you and your 40 able withestand +fy temptation? every Trust no 8 8 Needs a comma here. cheesey day pizza the satisfaction e}them provins definitely worth will and NOPOOR 14 to get fat when wants ____OU lida

22 https://xtremepape.rs/

Example candidate response – high, continued	Examiner comments
L. Have the right papers Dependicity on your mode of transport you'll need to have the right papers and docurrentation 9 success to get by all smooth sailing. The usual necessities ilichale your passport and transport ticket.	(9) 'documentation', 'approval' and 'consent' are all apt lexical choices of vocabulary for this particular sub- section.
If you are under the age of Eighteen 10 make sure you have that special letter with the approval and consent	Shows continued awareness of teenage audience.
from your parents on your travels. You wouldn't want to use held up i'm
O. R. Tambo Airport and in South Africa without them, and you'll se struck and stranded you'll se struck waiting in the immigration office for monts, or even days.
S. Write it down.
All this seems like an junpossible load to remember which is why you should keep a travel watebook, not just to tecond your fabulars adventures but also dit down important things to remember live departure times, addresses and
- phone mumbers. Or Alternatively, USE your- difter lives that is permanently attached to your body - Your phone. Youll we surprised at the number of useful travel apps your phone can download, not just games and social modia. It's also better because you can set alarnes

Example candidate response – high, continued	Examiner comments
and remanders so you don't miss your flight, dozening aff in the motel room.
6. Surrender to the enough If all else fails, the last thing you want to do is have to ring up your parents and admit defeat, but remember they are on your sole and will always be able to give you advice on anything.
Don't be afraid to ask your family and friends for mere when you are in a pickle, secanse the likelihood is that they have been through the same thing, and you'd would rather surrender and ask for help than lefting the problem get bagger and move	Continued use of idiomatic speech shows the candidate's facility in English.
Hopefully this article has made you more confident labout your independent travels	2 A proper conclusion to the article.
and don't forget to name four and try new twings while learning about the place and people you are visiting. Who renows you may even love it so much as to want to live there are day	Thoughtful and ongoging, this 13 Thoughtful and engaging, this composition shows a strong structure, voice and purpose. It develops each point clearly, with subtitles helping to organise ideas. There is a concrete sense of audience, expression is fluent and there are very few errors. Candidate achieves an A in this piece.
	Total mark awarded = 20 out of 25

The use of an anecdote or two, some more varied use of language effects and a showcasing of the ability to use slightly more ambitious vocabulary would have improved the mark.

Section B – Question 5

Example candidate response – middle	Examiner comments
Leaving age - to
Good marning my Fellow students and teachers. Today I would like to adress? The topic of age. Mare specifically at what age students should be able to leave school and start with their lives as an independent reson.	 Audience is made explicit from the outset – and it is immediately clear that this is a speech. Spelling error.
It is my strong belief that students should be allowed to leave school at the age of 15. Here are some of the reasons why I believe that this is a good age. 4	3 Topic is made clear from the outset.
knowledge: Throughout our schooling coreers we strive to	4 The speaker's purpose is also made clear now by a straightforward statement of intent and a simple indication of direction.
expand ar knowlede first we also learn a lot of new things but we also repeat a lot at the same topics even thigh we have mosteried it the first time. We can take all that wasted time and use it to dereby new skills that we	5 Spelling error from carelessness (the candidate spelt it correctly in the subtitle). Also, this should be followed by a full stop.
would only be able to lean at a higher standard. This would reduce the amount of years needed by, from what I have calculated, two whole geors. 6	6 The first point has been made but no example has been given. Development is minimal.
Experience: School tokes a lot of time out of ones life at	It needs an apostrophe here – 'one's life'.
a young age This often means people could experience other Endemental Ports of becoming	8 Spelling error.
on ad-lt. For instance many jobs require a certain number of working years 9 experience,	9 Apostrophe needed – 'working years' experience'.

Example candidate response – middle, continued	Examiner comments
experience we cannot attain as we can't works ait small businesses. Two years working experience will greatly help in the Future.	Unclear. Does candidate mean 'while still at school'?
University: My find iterint is universities. A lot of iniversities look at grades from lower standards. For intince IGCSE levels are highly respected in our aniversities and one can often get in on those alone so why wester time doing a lower standard. For larger when up can do a stightly higher, more recognised, one that takes less time. Leaving age - 21	1 Again, unclear here what 'doing a lower standard' means.
Good morning all. I const see that a leaving age of 16 will be effective both for ones self or for the comunity.	Purpose is clear from the outset. This is the opposing argument.
Firstly I resonally think that people of ages 20 or lower have not fully reached a mature level ges there are reade that are more mature than	Use of discourse markers to indicate structure. This also helps give a sense of purpose to the argument.
others but about 87% at all tanagers under 20 are not at a matrice level (Dexpecilly in tabys society. Having immatrice people working or studying greatly affects productivity and quality in a working environment. (6)	 A full stop is needed here to avoid the sense of a run-on line. Repeats phrase – this makes the composition seem a little unvaried.
	6 Spelling error.

While there was a consistent focus on the topic in the candidate's answer, the number of errors, especially of spelling and punctuation, brought the candidate's mark down. The use of specific examples would have made the arguments more convincing and persuasive. More varied use of language effects could have made for a more engaging set of speeches.

Example candidate response – low, continued	Examiner comments
oxygen to brethe, we are polluting what we need to	B Spelling error.
drink and survive. Our advancements for bett better 12 feeding at the Earth 16 this continues	Output: Subject-verb agreement error.
there will be no us.	(15) 'feeding off' is an unclear expression.
(FITF (Film of industrial pollution) Look at the amount of waste gases that are given off tasse dark gases will Anothis from only one factory,	Punctuation is needed, either a full stop or a colon.
be imagine the amount of smoke given out every day. Imagine the amount of waster entering the water	W ore sentence fragmentation.
bodies. What would we do without fresh air and fresh water? We have done enough harm. There is too much	18 This should be singular.
pollution and global warming. Our sins are committed but we show 1d work together and take simple actions to pay	9 Spelling and grammatical errors.
both back Mother Earth.	20 Word 'do' is missing.
(Film of a flower's transition from a buil) The first thing we should is to grow more plants and	2 Spelling error.
theon $ in our concrete world to make it more beatiful	A question mark is needed here, as this is a question.
and green 22 Twenty percent at of our population is	(one) hundred' – missing word.
our future. Every one of you have the power to this world a better place, it 25 only a matter of choice	Subject-verb agreement error. This should read 'Every one of you has the power'.
(200ming.out showing a greener. Earth from space)	25 Missing apostrophe.
The ability to bring out change is the most of a our	26 There is a missing word here.
would you choose it to be dull or healthy?	27 This should be a colon.
Deforestation must be coved by a forestation. More of public transport should be used and wore must be done in	(loved' is an inappropriate word here.
research to attor the atmosphere to change. Earth is	(More of public transport' is an unclear expression.
already in red alert. (Alobal warming is rising due to pollution.	(For' is needed, rather than 'of'.
Slopping it it is surely a slow pracess and will take years, but we must start take efforts now, before its	3 Wrong word – should be 'caps'.
too late to vestore Earth to its beauty where humans and other species live in barmony, a better future, a better life.	32 This should be a comma, as it should lead on to 'in order to restore'.
	Total mark awarded = 8 out of 25

This composition was relevant, with an appropriate structure in place. Language effects were attempted. Expression was unclear at times and did not flow easily.

The candidate made frequent errors in this composition: inconsistent use of pronouns, sentence fragmentation, spelling and punctuation errors, use of imprecise or unsuitable vocabulary, subject-verb disagreement. Although the content was relevant, the ideas were not always clear and ideas could have been developed more carefully and appropriately. The form was appropriate, but not always consistent – there were instances where the text did not read like a voiceover, e.g. in the use of 'I guess' which is unsuitable for a voiceover. The candidate could have made sure that all elements of the text cohered to the style of a voiceover.

Common mistakes candidates made in this question

The examiner expected candidates to persuade, argue or advise in Section B, depending on the command words in the question. For example, Question 4 'Write a magazine article called Travelling for the First Time' clearly asks for offering advice and guidance. This meant that candidates had to give suggestions in a positive and thoughtful way, using language effects to steer readers to accept the ideas as beneficial to them. The purpose and audience were understood to be travel advice for 'older teenagers' travelling for the very first time without their family, so candidates had to select their vocabulary and phraseology to appeal to that age group.

For Question 5, the words 'debate' and 'argues' should have alerted candidates to the form expected; and the command was 'write two speeches' with 'opposing attitudes and viewpoints'. Candidates therefore had to formulate two different speech texts with completely different points of view. The more sophisticated candidates also created two different voices with varied styles of speaking to emphasise two different personas.

For Question 6, candidates were told to 'write the script of a voiceover'. The examiner expected candidates to tie in the content with some visual elements of a TV documentary, not merely write an essay with a passionate argument or a quasi-speech exhorting young people to 'step up to the plate'. There was no need to write 'stage directions', but candidates should have written so as to reference the imagined visual components in the documentary. Candidates should have spent their time in using language persuasively and convincingly.

The more successful 'Writing for an audience' answers kept the target audience in mind throughout and adopted language and structural techniques to match that audience. Less successful responses were unable to use the conventions of different forms, establish a mature, credible voice or develop a well thought out, logically organised line of argument. Across Section B (as in Section A) there was a range of technical and structural errors which often impacted on the clarity and accuracy of expression. The most successful responses avoided this tendency.

https://xtremepape.rs/

Cambridge International Examinations 1 Hills Road, Cambridge, CB1 2EU, United Kingdom t: +44 1223 553554 f: +44 1223 553558 e: info@cie.org.uk www.cie.org.uk

© Cambridge International Examinations 2017 Version 1.0

