Each essay should be 500–600 words long. Use examples to support your arguments.

Section 1

- 1 'The classroom is the only place for education.' Discuss.
- 2 What do you understand by the rule of law? Consider how it might be applied in the modern world.
- 3 To what extent can sport foster a sense of community beyond the events themselves?
- 4 'How and where we live is as important for our well-being as the genes we were born with.' Discuss.

Section 2

- 5 Today, health warnings are everywhere: on cigarettes, alcohol and even food. How effective are such warnings?
- 6 'Without science, the beauty and wonder of nature would not be fully appreciated.' Discuss.
- 7 Choose an independent scientific research project you would like to pursue and explain how you would make it happen.
- 8 Evaluate the impact of mathematics on modern technology.

Section 3

- 9 How far has music, art or theatre influenced your outlook on the world?
- 10 'The way we choose to furnish and decorate our homes reflects who we are.' How true is this statement?
- 11 Which singer, musician or band would you most like to see performing live? Explain why that would make a difference to your appreciation of the music.
- 12 Assess the value of a musical education in your country.
