2 Samuel is a multi-millionaire. He wants to avoid paying too much tax so he creates a trust. He transfers half his money to the 4 trustees Kiran, Leila, Mandeep and Nina to be held for his children, who are all under 18 years of age. He would now like to replace 2 of the trustees and he wishes to know if he can do so. Kiran left England to live in France a year ago but returned to England for a day during that period for a family wedding. Mandeep has been suffering difficulties in her business recently and was declared bankrupt last month.

(a) Advise Samuel on the following issues.

(i) Can Kiran be replaced as a trustee? Explain your reasons. [10]

(ii) Can Mandeep be replaced as a trustee? Assess any potential difficulties in doing so. [10]

(iii) If Kiran or Mandeep could be replaced, who would appoint the replacement trustees? Explain your reasons. [10]

Trustee Act 1925

s.36 (1)

Where a trustee...whether appointed by a court or otherwise is dead, remains out of the United Kingdom for more than twelve months, or desires to be discharged from all or any of the trusts or powers reposed in or conferred on him, or refuses or is unfit to act therein, or is incapable of acting... then, subject to the restrictions imposed by this act on the number of trustees –

(a) The person or persons nominated for the purpose of appointing new trustees by the instrument, if any, creating the trust; or may, by writing, appoint one or more other persons...to be trustee.

(b) If there is no such person or no such person able and willing to act then the surviving or continuing trustees or trustee for the time being...

Re Walker [1901]

There was no power to replace a trustee where a trustee had been out of the United Kingdom for more than twelve months but had returned to the United Kingdom for any time even where it was as short as a month.

Re Wheeler and De Rochow [1896]

It was held that bankruptcy made a trustee unfit to act but not incapable of acting. It was accepted that bankruptcy should not always make a trustee unfit particularly if no moral blame attaches to the bankrupt trustee.
