

Answer three questions.

- 1 It is vital that there are adequate controls on delegated legislation.

Explain the types of delegated legislation and consider whether the controls are effective. [25]

- 2 Equitable remedies, concepts and maxims still play an important role.

Using cases and examples, explain how equity continues to be relevant in the courts today. [25]

- 3 Describe the role of the County Court and the High Court in civil cases. Discuss why the Small Claims track in the County Court is so successful. [25]

- 4 Raj, aged 52, has been arrested on suspicion of having committed murder and taken to a police station.

Explain and critically evaluate the protection provided by the law for suspects at the police station. [25]

- 5 Lay magistrates play an essential role in the justice system.

Describe both the civil and criminal role of lay magistrates. Consider whether they should be replaced by professional judges. [25]

- 6 Explain the organisation and role of the Crown Prosecution Service (CPS). Evaluate the extent to which the CPS has been successful in providing an impartial and independent prosecution service. [25]

BLANK PAGE

---

Permission to reproduce items where third-party owned material protected by copyright is included has been sought and cleared where possible. Every reasonable effort has been made by the publisher (UCLES) to trace copyright holders, but if any items requiring clearance have unwittingly been included, the publisher will be pleased to make amends at the earliest possible opportunity.

To avoid the issue of disclosure of answer-related information to candidates, all copyright acknowledgements are reproduced online in the Cambridge International Examinations Copyright Acknowledgements Booklet. This is produced for each series of examinations and is freely available to download at www.cie.org.uk after the live examination series.

Cambridge International Examinations is part of the Cambridge Assessment Group. Cambridge Assessment is the brand name of University of Cambridge Local Examinations Syndicate (UCLES), which is itself a department of the University of Cambridge.