MARK SCHEME

Maximum Mark: 75

Published

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes should be read in conjunction with the question paper and the Principal Examiner Report for Teachers.

Cambridge will not enter into discussions about these mark schemes.

Cambridge is publishing the mark schemes for the May/June 2017 series for most Cambridge IGCSE[®], Cambridge International A and AS Level and Cambridge Pre-U components, and some Cambridge O Level components.

Question	Answer	Marks
1	Leona, aged 45 is a factory worker. She would like to become a magistrate. Explain how she should apply and, if successful, the training she would be expected to undertake. What challenges might she face in becoming a magistrate? Band 1 [0 marks] Irrelevant answer. Band 2 [1–6 marks] Candidate gives a very basic explanation of the magistrate but with no real detail or accuracy. There may be very limited points of evaluation but these are not developed. Band 3 [7–12 marks] Candidate gives a brief but generally accurate explanation of the requirements and application process involved in becoming a magistrate. There may be a brief mention of training, but this may be superficial and poorly explained. There is unlikely to be any discussion of detail and very little, if any, reference to the analytical issues within the question. Band 4 [13–19 marks] Candidate gives a reasonable explanation of the requirements and application process involved in becoming a magistrate, but these may not have wide ranging detail at the lower end of the band. Training will be discussed but again, at the lower end of the band, detail may be omitted. Better candidates may begin to address the analytical issues of the problems associated with becoming a magistrate within the question, but at the lower end of the mark band this may be limited and unfocussed on the question. Band 5 [20–25 marks] Candidate gives a clear and very detailed explanation of the requirements and application process involved in becoming a magistrates and the training which needs to be undertaken. Candidate evaluates the issues and difficulties in becoming a magistrate.	25
