- 1 (a) Roger is a property developer who wants to build some houses on farmland. He knows a local farmer has land to sell but this has been blocked by the local council. Robert offers his friend Nigel, who is a member of the council, £10 000 to vote for the land to be sold at the next council meeting. Nigel says this is illegal. A day later, Roger transfers £10 000 to Nigel's bank account. Nigel votes for the land to be sold at the next council meeting.

Explain how the Bribery Act 2010 will apply to Roger. [10]

- (b) Angie opens a hairdressing and beauty salon on a street where Rupert already runs a hairdressing business from his home. Angie pays her friend, Sue, £500 to help her put Rupert out of business by telling the police that Rupert attacked her while she was in his house getting a haircut. Rupert is charged and the story is reported in the local newspaper. Rupert's customers now go to Angie's salon.

Explain how the Bribery Act 2010 will apply to Angie. [10]

- (c) Gunther has developed a new car. He knows the car uses a lot of fuel so he tells Daniel, the government tester, that he will buy him an expensive holiday if he says the car uses little fuel. In the test the car does use a lot of fuel but in his report Daniel lies and says the car uses little fuel. As a result of Daniel's report, Gunther sells many more cars than he expected and buys Daniel an expensive holiday.

Explain how the Bribery Act 2010 will apply to Gunther. [10]

- (d) Describe the pre-trial processes used to allocate triable either way offences for trial. Assess the effectiveness of these processes. [20]

Bribery Act 2010

Section 1 Offences of bribing another person

- (1) A person (“P”) is guilty of an offence if either of the following cases applies
- (2) Case 1 is where—
 - (a) P offers, promises or gives a financial or other advantage to another person, and
 - (b) P intends the advantage—
 - (i) to induce a person to perform improperly a relevant function or activity, or
 - (ii) to reward a person for the improper performance of such a function or activity.
- (3) Case 2 is where—
 - (a) P offers, promises or gives a financial or other advantage to another person, and
 - (b) P knows or believes that the acceptance of the advantage would itself constitute the improper performance of a relevant function or activity.

Section 3 Function or activity to which bribe relates

- (1) For the purposes of this Act a function or activity is a relevant function or activity if—
 - (a) it falls within subsection (2), and
 - (b) meets one or more of conditions A to C.
- (2) The following functions and activities fall within this subsection—
 - (a) any function of a public nature,
 - (b) any activity connected with a business,
 - (c) any activity performed in the course of a person’s employment,
 - (d) any activity performed by or on behalf of a body of persons
- (3) Condition A is that a person performing the function or activity is expected to perform it in good faith.
- (4) Condition B is that a person performing the function or activity is expected to perform it impartially.
- (5) Condition C is that a person performing the function or activity is in a position of trust by virtue of performing it.

Section 4 Improper performance to which bribe relates

- (1) For the purposes of this Act a relevant function or activity—
 - (a) is performed improperly if it is performed in breach of a relevant expectation, and
 - (b) is to be treated as being performed improperly if there is a failure to perform the function or activity and that failure is itself a breach of a relevant expectation.
- (2) In subsection (1) “relevant expectation”—
 - (a) in relation to a function or activity which meets condition A or B, means the expectation mentioned in the condition concerned, and
 - (b) in relation to a function or activity which meets condition C, means any expectation as to the manner in which, or the reasons for which, the function or activity will be performed that arises from the position of trust mentioned in that condition.

- 2 (a) Shane is a writer who listens to a radio programme which includes a reading from a book called 'Mister Smith and his dogs'. Shane finds a copy of the book in his local library. It was published 65 years ago but there is no other information about the writer or when the book was written. Shane updates the book and publishes it under his own name.
