Join in with our educational experiences

Our zoo is perfect for your school trip

Come and learn about the animals in our classrooms

Use our carefully designed worksheets with your class

Experienced and knowledgeable guides will help to make sure your school trip is a success

Leaflets are available in many different languages and will help you plan your trip

There are many signposts on site and maps are available at the entrance in different languages so you can find all the things you want to see and do

We have a number of restaurants on site offering a wide range of different cuisines to cater for all your needs no matter what kind of food you like. We provide a children's menu, a special menu for vegetarians. Our restaurants also offer halal and kosher options.

Our zoo is fully accessible for wheelchair users.

We also offer audio tours and there are Braille leaflets and notices around the zoo.
