1 GCN makes a wide range of clothing including shirts and trousers for men and women. Its small factory employs 75 skilled workers. The Operations manager thinks employees enjoy working at the factory as few leave each year. He said: 'Who needs to offer financial bonuses when I can use Herzberg's theory to motivate employees?' He would like to improve efficiency in the factory as he thinks this is the best way to increase GCN's low level of profit. He is not sure whether to introduce new technology into the production process.

2 The Government in country Y wants to encourage more secondary sector business activity to help reduce unemployment. It has announced a reduction in taxes and plans to remove some legal controls over business activity. Kasper Construction is a multinational company based in country X which wants to expand. It plans to build a brick-making factory in country Y if it can find a suitable location. Some pressure groups are against this plan as Kasper Construction has a bad reputation for environmental damage.

- 3 Jenson Travel (JT) sells a wide range of holidays aimed at the mass market. The holidays are sold through its 350 shops in country F. It has agreed to buy another company which specialises in activity holidays such as skiing. This takeover means that JT will have 50 extra shops and will increase its market share to 40%. The takeover could reduce JT’s costs by $35m each year. A summary of JT’s accounting information for 2016 is shown in Table 1. The Finance Director thinks shareholders and customers will benefit from the takeover.

Table 1: Summary of accounting information

Non-current assets	$500m
Current assets	$324m
Current liabilities	$270m
Non-current liabilities	$1000m
Profit margin	16%
