The boy woke up and looked at the clock which was on a table near the bed. It was half past five in the morning. He was cold and tired. He had gone to bed only a few hours ago and had slept badly.

He got up and went to the window which overlooked the street. It was windy and raining. He noticed a large black cat sitting on a car. Suddenly it jumped down and ran towards the house opposite. The door opened and a young man came out. He was wearing dark clothes and had a bag on his shoulder. After closing the door without making a sound, he paused, looked round and then walked quickly up the road and disappeared.

The boy heard a car approaching which seemed to stop briefly then drive away at top speed. What should he do? If it were a burglar, he should call the police – but he wasn't sure.

Later, his mother explained the mystery. The young man is a nurse who often has to go to the hospital at night if there is an emergency.
